

2022 YEAR IN REVIEW

In a year like no other, we supported our pet community's needs as families faced inflation, economic uncertainty and housing instability while also adjusting our operations to fit the "post-COVID" era.

We served 11,716 pets - and the people who love them - in 2022.
Thank you for making it possible.

2,009

COMPANION ANIMALS

animals received loving, humane and fear-free care in the Adoption Center including 792 dogs, 995 cats, 91 birds, 59 rabbits, 62 small mammals and 10 reptiles.

20,245

PROCEDURES & EXAMS

completed at the Community Veterinary Clinic, including

- 2,275 spay/neuter surgeries
- 7,159 vaccinations
- 5,162 veterinary exams.

47,495

HOURS

of dedicated service by our foster families and in-house volunteers, including caring for 970 pets who spent at least a day in foster care.

1,500

STUDENTS

participated in engaging humane education lessons taught in our Youth Programs classroom and at area schools.

stay@home

13,176

HOURS

of temporary boarding, both at AWS and with foster families.

3,610

COMMUNITY PETS

kept with their families through tough times.

39,896

POUNDS

of food and litter provided in partnership with area food pantries.

880

GRADUATES

of individual and group canine training classes offered by our certified professional dog trainers.

Animal Welfare Society exists to serve as the safety net for lost and homeless pets and to provide access to affordable services and resources necessary for long term well-being, so pets and their families stay together and thrive.